Educational Innovation

April 2020 Founder of "#ScopingSundays" – Scoping Sundays is a Twitter based social media educational platform focused on gastrointestinal endoscopy. These are monthly gastrointestinal endoscopy focused educational sessions that involve two GI fellows as moderators and one faculty as an expert. The average participation in these sessions is about 200 participants. #ScopingSundays is now one of the most leading endoscopy education platform on Twitter with over 11,000 followers. We have created a Tweetorial Board, similar to an Editorial Board which consists of GI fellows from across the country as well experts who are expert endoscopists.
